A Showcase Focuses on Functionality, Sustainability, PPE, Smart Textiles and Intelligent Manufacturing

TITAS will be held from October 13 to 15, the highly anticipated event will focus on five directions:

- Functional applications – applying multifunctional textiles to a modern lifestyle across sports, outdoor, fashion, fitness and wellness
- Sustainability – adopting eco-friendly materials and processes to achieve zero discharge of hazardous substances
- Personal protective equipment – developing personal or medical protective products with advanced textile technology
- Smart textiles – combining cloud computing and wireless communication technology to provide detective capability
- Intelligent manufacturing – adopting hi-tech automation systems and solutions to enhance production efficiency

A One-stop and Total Solution Trade Show

TITAS features a one-stop-for-all service that links up fibers, yarns, fabrics, garments, accessories, trimmings, sewing equipment, textile machinery and related technologies and services.

Exhibit categories include:

- Fibers, filaments & yarns
- Apparel textiles
- Home textiles
- Industrial textiles
- Apparels
- Trimmings & Accessories
- Sewing equipment
- Textile machinery
- Automated solution systems
- Textile certification service

Diverse and Innovative Products, Services and Activities

TITAS highlights innovative textiles and technologies, and offers a full-fledged supply chain system with quality products and services. The show features:

- Top-notch functional textiles
- Sustainable textiles
- Personal protective equipment
- Smart textiles and wearable technology
- Intelligent manufacturing, automated equipment and technologies
- One-on-one business meetings with global buyers
- Professional seminars for the latest industry insights and market trends

An Effective Sourcing and Purchasing Platform

The one-on-one business meetings, in conjunction with TITAS, have become one of the bright spots of the show and are highly lauded by international brands and retailers as “one of the most effective industry platforms in the world”, creating substantial results for participants.

In response to the travel restrictions, TITAS integrates online and offline measures by combining physical and virtual meetings.
